

Called to Serve in Different Ways

Different people are called to serve God in many different ways. Read each sentence and match its number with the correct picture.

1. Religious brothers, sisters, monks, nuns, and friars dedicate their entire lives to God, living in a community together, praying, and working.

2. The pope is called "The Servant of the Servants of God."

3. Bishops lead and serve a large area that includes many churches. This area is called a diocese. The bishop of our diocese is Bishop John Ricard.

4. Adults can do all kinds of things to serve. They can even teach children in a Religious Education Program.

5. Priests serve the people of a parish. Our priest is named _____

Children can also do many things to serve. Some of the things children can do are _____.

