St. John Paul II Catholic High School Names Joanna Copenhaver Full-Time Principal

Tallahassee, FL — Bishop William A. Wack of the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee and Michael Juhas, superintendent of Catholic Schools announces the appointment of Joanna Copenhaver as full-time principal at St. John Paul Catholic High School in Tallahassee, FL. Copenhaver has been serving as interim principal for the school since August 2018. Most recently, Copenhaver worked in administrative roles at Trinity Catholic School in Tallahassee.

Juhas said in a letter today to the St. John Paul II Catholic High School community, “The school’s administrative team, led by Joanna Copenhaver, is working tirelessly to provide great educational experiences for our students, and our School Advisory Council is working to implement plans for the future.”

“We are confident that the energy and skills Mrs. Copenhaver brings to the position are the right fit for the school moving forward. We plan to build on this positive momentum by providing the needed stability in leadership with a goal of telling our story to the greater community,” Juhas added.
